Goals

The networking goals in the region of Berlin-Brandenburg are to:

- Organize a “biomethane in transport network” together with the project partner GASAG and other stakeholders in the biogas puzzle - building up on existing networks and initiatives such as
 - BB (Berlin-Brandenburg) fährt Erdgas [BB drives with natural gas]
 - Initiativkreis Erdgas als Kraftstoff (IEK) [initiative for the usage of natural gas as transport fuel]
 - Sauberer Fuhrpark [clean fleets]
- Collect the contact data of the regional network members and build a regional register which will serve as an input for the common European register.
- Help organize a European network with the purpose of transferring knowledge and establish contact between the regional networks and key stakeholders in other countries.
- Organize regional network meetings in the form of strategic meetings, training seminars, workshops or after work meetings.
- Organize visits to demonstration installations in the region and around Germany.
- Distribute e-newsletters and further regional information regarding biomethane usage as a transport fuel and NGV.

Plan of activities

Spring 2008

- e-newsletter to inform about Madegascar
- Workshop (May 22nd, 2008): bring strategic actors within the biogas puzzle together to discuss and develop a regional market development strategy for:
 - the market introduction of biomethane as transport fuel
 - the introduction of home refuelling appliances
 - the marketing of these

Summer 2008

- prepare and send out information material on biomethane as transport fuel
- prepare and send out information material on home refuelling appliances

Autumn 2008

- host large network meeting to get-to-know each other, share experiences and bring forward ideas / wishes of the network participants
- visit / test home refuelling appliance
- send out second e-newsletter

Winter 2008/2009

- collect, prepare and share information on best practice examples
- collect, prepare and share information on further market development possibilities
- host regional network event for dissemination and contact building

Spring 2009

- visit biogas production and upgrading facility in Rathenow, Brandenburg (Opening: May 2009)
- send out third e-newsletter

Summer 2009

- visit gas filling stations in Berlin – fuelling an NGV with biomethane
- send out fourth e-newsletter

Autumn 2009

- host regional network event
- present the project at seminar / workshop external to Madegascar to link activities with upcoming networks (for post Madegascar project time)

Winter 2009/2010

- send out fifth and final e-newsletter
- host a final workshop / event to keep the momentum of the discussion and knowledge exchange
